Incorporated

Johnnie Williams III is an Encouragement Specialist that has leveraged much of his time, talents and relationships for the benefit of youth on a local, national and international level.

Johnnie collaborates with an international team of consultants that assist organizations with the development of community projects, youth products and small business programs. He has co-authored 3 children's books, 2 financial literacy workbooks and behavior tracking products and behavior modification programs.

He has provided more than 1,800 public presentations to over 1 million youth, uniquely positioning him to advise parents and education professionals on components that produce student success stories. He has consulted with NBA franchises and been contacted to inspire youth within their markets.

His ability to present the big picture using simple metaphors makes his content very digestible and easily understood. Because of his ability to connect with people, Johnnie was appointed to serve on Michigan Committee on Juvenile Justice and upon arriving to Las Vegas, he was appointed by the Mayor Andy Hafen of Henderson, to serve on their Blue Ribbon Commission for Educational Excellence.

Johnnie Williams is currently contracted by the Clark County School District as an out of district consultant and contracted mentor. His services at one of the states largest middle schools has been funded by Title 1 for over 5 years.
